One World

non-profit

THE MISSION

One World's non-profit mission is to inspire an appreciation of world cultures by educating youth through participation in a diversity of art forms from around the world.

Since its inception in 1993, One World has served over 1 million school children. Support of One World allows us to continue to:

- Donate 50% of our public performance tickets to community organizations serving kids including The Settlement Home, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Any Baby Can, Girl Scouts, Family Connections & more.
- Provide field trip opportunities to underserved schools for Kids & Family shows at One World Theatre
- Provide dynamic after school programming where kids learn to make musical instruments from recycled material while studying diverse cultures
- Bring vibrant multi-cultural assemblies to Austin's schoolchildren that teach about the world, its people & their cultures
 - Provide scholarships to One World's performing arts summer camps
- ◆ Provide student musicians with free tickets to Hartt & Soul Productions shows through our Student Ticket Giveaway Program
 - ◆ Sponsorship of artists to go abroad to play for children through the One World Everywhere program

HOW CAN I HELP?

One World's commitment to Austin's youth is stronger than ever, with world-class kids & family programming, master classes & free shows for schoolchildren, social services organizations & more. Your help is more important now than ever & we invite you to please remember One World when considering a charity for your personal or professional contribution.
